FRENCHBURG SCHOOL NEWS

The Frenchburg branch of the W. C. T. U. met at the high school chapel Monday evening to renew the work of the organization. A number of papers were read by younger members, each giving some phase of W. C. T. U. and the ideals for which it stands. Superintendent Giffin spoke on "Purity and the Home," urging the co-operation of parents, teachers and organizations in their effort to create in the home and community wholesome environments for the boy and girl. Mrs. Dora McCormick gave an interesting account of the splendid work being done by the W. C. T. U. in Mt. Sterling, telling of the wide field of service open to its workers. At the close of the program a number of girls not members of the W. C. T. U. asked to be informed more fully about the requirements for membership and were delighted to learn that they, too, might be active members.
